

02-হুযাইফার-রাতের-নামাজ

02 - Hudhayfah (RA): Night Prayer Behind the Prophet

Important Notice: This content is prepared by AI. Only Sahih/Hasan hadith included.

1. Source Card

Subject	Description
Narrator	Hudhayfah ibn al-Yaman (RA)
Reference	Sahih Bukhari 1178, Sahih Muslim 769
Topic	The Prophet's night prayer methodology

2. Background

Hudhayfah (RA) was one of the closest companions. He followed the Prophet (SAW) to the mosque at night and observed his prayer.

3. Full Narration

Hudhayfah (RA) said:

I saw the Prophet (SAW) pray at night. He recited Surah Al-Baqarah – one ayat after another. He paused briefly after each ayat.

He would say Allahu Akbar and go into ruku. He paused briefly. Then he would say Sami Allahu liman hamidah and stand.

In sujud he would say Subhana Rabbiyal A'la. He stayed in sujud longer.

He completed Surah Al-Baqarah in one rakat.

4. Lessons

Brief Pause – Itminan (Tranquility)

The Prophet (SAW) paused after each ayat, after each movement. This is khushu – thinking, feeling, absorbing.

Long Surah in One Rakat

Completing Al-Baqarah in one rakat shows both length and quality of the Prophet's prayer.

5. Related Hadith

Hadith	Source
The Prophet (SAW) recited Al-Baqarah in night prayer	Sahih Bukhari 1178
The Prophet (SAW) completed Al-Baqarah in one rakat	Sahih Muslim 769

Last Updated: August 2026